Aldebaran Cluster

This certifies that the present ring is crafted in 18 karat white gold (750/1000), with a total weight of 3.3 grams.

The piece features a refined sequence of 5 lab-grown diamonds, with a round brilliant cut, totaling 1.62 carats. The prong setting enhances each stone, allowing light to pass through and maximize its brilliance.

The essential and elegant design, combined with the luminosity of white gold and the radiance of the diamonds, gives this ring a timeless style. Crafted according to high manufacturing standards and subjected to rigorous quality controls, it represents an authentic piece of jewelry, designed to last and stand out.

Registered within the Professional Guild of Precious Stone Experts for Rome and Province with ID No.1597.

Enrolled in the register of Technical Consultants of the Court of Tivoli as a Precious Stones Expert and Gemologist.
